

2008 Grants List $9,341,265.14

I. ISRAEL $2,894,725

A. THE NEW ISRAEL FUND (NIF)

1. For general support of this organization, which works to strengthen democracy and promote social justice in Israel through its primary issue areas: Civil and Human Rights, Social and Economic Justice, and Pluralism ($237,500). www.nif.org
2. For SHATIL, NIF's Empowerment and Training Center for social change organizations ($200,000). www.nif.org
3. For SHATIL to provide technical assistance through five key projects: the Assistance to Ethiopian Immigrants Project; the Conflict Transformation and Management Center; the Social and Economic Justice Initiative; the Palestinian Initiative; and the Assistance to the Former Soviet Union Immigrant Community Project ($223,148). www.nif.org
4. For NIF/SHATIL's National Budget Reform project, which works to ensure transparency and equal access in state budget allocations, with a particular focus on the public support budget ($22,783). www.nif.org
5. For SHATIL'S Palestinian Initiative (PI), a complement to the New Israel Fund's grantmaking to organizations throughout the Palestinian-Israeli community; the PI provides consulting and training support to decision-makers, intellectuals, business people, community leaders and NGO activists advancing the rights of civil society, women and youth ($230,365). www.nif.org
6. For NIF's Core Grants Program, which provides institution-building grants to social change organizations working to strengthen democracy and promote social and economic justice in Israel ($492,373). NIF utilized these funds to fulfill its commitments to the following organizations: www.nif.org

a) Civil Rights and Human Rights

Association for Civil Rights in Israel ($150,000), to build awareness of civil and human rights challenges in Israel and the Occupied Territories.

Machsom Watch ($15,000), to protect the human rights of Palestinians in the territories by monitoring military checkpoints.

The Movement for Freedom of Information in Israel ($24,000), to promote compliance with the Freedom of Information Act by demanding information from government agencies, applying to the courts when necessary, and raising public awareness about the law.

Worker's Hotline ($20,000), to promote the rights of disempowered workers.

Yesh Din ($20,000), to create long-term improvement in the human rights situation in the Territories.

b) Social and Economic Justice

Hazit Hakavod (the Respect Front) ($10,000), to raise public awareness and improve policies for Israel's elderly who subsist in poverty.

The Israeli Association for Distributive Justice ($25,000), to promote the just distribution of natural resources in Israel.

Israeli Center for Social Justice ($10,000), to define social targets for the state budget in order to decrease the number of people living in poverty and reduce social gaps.

Mehuyavut/Commitment to Peace and Social Justice ($25,000), to address unemployment issues.

The Movement for Dignified Living ($20,000), to protect the rights of mortgage victim families.

c) Empowering the Ethiopian Immigrant Community in Israel

Friends by Nature – Community Empowerment ($8,000), to strengthen Ethiopian neighborhoods and foster better integration of Ethiopian immigrants into Israeli society.

South Wing to Zion ($16,000), to bring the Falas Mora to Israel and to ease their integration into Israeli society.

d) Empowering Palestinian Citizens of Israel

Adalah – Legal Center For Arab Minority Rights In Israel ($40,000), to employ a variety of legal strategies to fight for the rights and status of Palestinian Israelis.

Al-Ahali ($25,000), to fight for water and land rights and promote community organizing among Palestinian-Israeli farmers and others in the Negev, Triangle and Galilee.

The Arab Center for Law and Policy ($20,000), to carry out research to improve the socio-economic status and struggle for equality of the Palestinian citizens of Israel.

Association to Promote Arab Education in Haifa ($8,000), to improve the poor quality of education and the high concentration of special-needs children in Haifa's Arab public schools.

Association to Promote the Wadi El Naim Village ($15,000), to have the Bedouin village of the El Azazmeh tribe recognized and relocated.

Forum of Directors of Arab Welfare Departments ($20,000), to fight social-welfare budget discrimination against Arab localities.

I'lam – Media Center for Palestinians in Israel ($20,000), to challenge discrimination in the Israeli media, strengthen the media as a tool for Palestinian discourse in Israel and ensure the Arab public's right to appropriate media coverage.

Kayan ($20,000), to encourage social activism among women in the north and Triangle regions.

7. For NIF's program to strengthen civil society and promote social and economic justice; Recommended for:

www.nif.org

Agenda, which seeks to influence the way social change issues are presented in the media and to improve the media-capacity of social change organizations ($36,452).

Breaking the Silence, which works with former soldiers and officers to break the silence and educate Israelis about the nature of the Occupation ($27,339); Hotline for Migrant Workers, which works on behalf of victims of labor and sex trafficking ($36,452);

Merchavim, specifically for its Let's Talk program, which teaches Arabic in Jewish schools, and its program for national integration of 500 Arab-Israeli teachers in the Jewish-Israeli school system ($13,670).
Yesh Din ("There is a Law") – Volunteers for Human Rights, for its work to oppose the continuing violation of Palestinian human rights in the Occupied Territories ($30,000).

8. For NIF's program to advance equal rights and opportunities for Palestinian Citizens of Israel; Recommended for :

Al Amer, for its leadership training program, Ajial (Generations) ($15,000);
Al Manarah, for its advocacy work for the realization of rights and accessibility to services for blind and other disabled groups in Israel's Palestinian community ($25,000);
The Association to Promote the Education of Bedouin Women, for its efforts to promote greater participation in higher education by Bedouin girls and women, and for its new plans to meet the needs of the first generation of educated Bedouin women ($40,000);
Bimkom – Planners for Planning Rights, for its efforts to support the planning rights of disadvantaged communities, including the Negev Bedouin, Palestinian residents of neighborhoods of East Jerusalem, and villages in both Area C and along the route of the Separation Barrier ($55,000);
The Center for Jewish-Arab Economic Development for its work to close economic gaps, advance fiscal empowerment of the Arab community in Israel, and promote integration among Israeli Jews and Arabs ($27,339);
Citizens Build a Community, for its new Arab Young Adult Leadership Project (AYALP), to nurture professional leadership development in the Lod Arab community ($20,000);
The Community of Learning Women, for its project The Quiet Revolution in the Wadi Ara Area and the Triangle Region ($25,000);
Ma'an for its Forum of Negev Bedouin Women's Organizations ($18,226); Mahapach-Tagir, to build communal educational leadership of Israeli-Arab Women ($13,670); Mossawa Center: The Advocacy Center for Arab Citizens of Israel, for its Socio-Economic Justice Program, which focuses on economic development in the Arab Community in Israel ($50,000);
MUNTADA for its Arab Forum for Sexuality, Education and Health, which seeks to break the taboos surrounding sexuality education and to promote healthy relationships to counter high risk behavior in Arab communities in Israel, including East Jerusalem ($27,339);
NISPED for its Forum of Five Organizations for Strength and Community Volunteering, a coalition of five Arab and Jewish-Arab NGOs that works to promote leadership development and volunteering frameworks for young adults ages 18-22 in the Arab sector ($18,226);
Sawt el-Amel: The Laborer's Voice, for its Grassroots Organizing Forum, which includes the Alternative Wisconsin Center and the Women's Platform ($30,000);
Shchenim Neighbors for Joint Development in the Galilee to reduce disparities in resource allocation ($18,226);

Sidreh to promote the development and advancement of Bedouin women in the Negev through education and business projects ($22,783);
Step Forward for its Bedouin Women-Run Community Film Production Co-op in Rahat (27,339); and Women Against Violence (WAV), for its advocacy efforts to increase the number of leadership roles held by Palestinian Israeli women in public organizations and the number of employed educated Palestinian Israeli women ($40,000).

9. For NIF's program to foster peace between Jews and Arabs in the Middle East; Recommended for:

Ir Amin for its efforts to shape policy to meet the needs of both peoples sharing Jerusalem, and to minimize the damage caused by unilateral actions such as the construction of the Separation Barrier ($31,896).

10. For NIF's program to empower and improve the living conditions for Ethiopian Immigrants and Falas Mura awaiting immigration from Ethiopia; Recommended for :
Almaya: the Association for the Advancement of the Ethiopian Family and Child in Israel for its efforts to strengthen early childhood education and community empowerment for the Ethiopian immigrant communities in Beersheva and other towns in southern Israel ($36,452);

Fidel: The Association for Education & Social Integration for Ethiopian Jews in Israel, to strengthen and expand mediation, empowerment and advocacy services to the Ethiopian community ($145,808);

Fidel: for the Netanya Initiative, a project to improve school and educational outcomes for Ethiopian and other children in Netanya ($250,000).

Israel Religious Action Center (IRAC) for its Legal Aid Centers for Olim (immigrants) project working on behalf of Ethiopians on personal status issues such as Jewish status, age correction, and family unification, which are of particular interest to the Falas Mura community ($20,000);

Israel Aids Task Force for its education, prevention and testing activities within the Ethiopian Israeli community ($25,000);

Israel Association for Ethiopian Jews (IAEJ), for its efforts to strengthen the Ethiopian community through education and employment ($110,000);

South Wing to Zion: the Association for Ingathering and Absorption of Ethiopian Jewry to pressure the Israeli government to continue the immigration of the remaining Falas Mura from Ethiopia, and to facilitate their absorption after they arrive ($60,000); and Tebeka, for its efforts to eradicate discrimination through legal action, to strengthen legal leadership within the Ethiopian community, and to provide the community with legal advice, referrals and public education about civil rights and obligations ($50,000).

11. For NIF's program to strengthen the CIS immigrant community; Recommended for:

Israel Association For Immigrant Children, for its efforts to promote the integration of immigrant children into the Israeli educational system, and to guarantee their legal citizenship in Israel ($27,339).

B. Americans For Peace Now $35,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to support Israel's grassroots peace movement, Shalom Achshav (Peace Now), and bolster support for peace among Israel, the Palestinians and Arab states in order to enhance Israel's security and bring stability to the Middle East. www.peacenow.org

C. National Conference on Ethiopian Jewry (NACOEJ) $35,000 For its Ethiopia Project, which provides nutritional, educational, religious, and vocational programs in the Gondar compound in Ethiopia for Falas Mura waiting to emigrate to Israel. www.nacoej.org

D. The Palestinian Human Rights Monitoring Group (PHRMG) $45,000 For general support of this organization, which works to end violations of human rights committed against Palestinians in the West Bank, Gaza Strip and East Jerusalem, whether committed by Palestinian or Israeli agencies or individuals. www.phrmg.org

II. ECONOMIC JUSTICE $2,242,500

NATIONAL PROGRAMS

Applied Research Center (ARC): $35,000 For general support of this organization, which works to advance racial justice and equity through research, policy analysis, and journalism. www.arc.org

Center for Community Change (CCC): $50,000 For general support of this organization, whose activities include providing technical assistance and training to low-wage workers and immigrant grassroots organizations. (Second installment of a $125,000 grant) www.communitychange.org

Center for Community Change: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which works to provide technical assistance and training to grassroots organizations working on jobs, welfare reform and public housing for low-income families. www.CommunityChange.org

Center for Law and Social Policy (CLASP): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which works to promote policies to improve the economic security of low-income families with children. www.clasp.org

Center on Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP): $50,000 For general support of this organization, which works to reduce poverty in the United States through improvements in federal, state, and local policies and programs; development of reforms in federal, state, and local tax and budget policies; and more effective operation of low-income programs. www.cbpp.org

Echoing Green (EG): $20,000 For its NOLA Initiative which is using the power of social entrepreneurship to help rebuild New Orleans and the Gulf Coast. www.echoinggreen.org

Food Research and Action Center (FRAC): $62,500 For general support of this organization, which works to ensure that the Food Stamp Program and key child nutrition programs better serve low-income families. www.frac.org

National Women's Law Center (NWLC): $40,000 For its Project to Strengthen the Safety Net, which ensures that low-income women and their families, both nationally and in the District of Columbia, receive the help they need to escape poverty. (First installment of a two-year $80,000 grant). www.nwlc.org

The Rebecca Project for Human Rights (RPHR): $50,000 For general support of this organization, which works with poor and low-income mothers who are struggling with the intersecting issues of economic marginality, substance abuse, access to family-oriented treatment, and the criminal justice system. www.rebeccaproject.org

USAction Education Fund (USAEF): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which provides information, training, technical assistance and research to state, regional and national organizations promoting social, racial, economic and environmental justice. (Second installment of a two-year $80,000 grant). www.usactioneducationfund.org

REGIONAL PROGRAMS

A. DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

PUBLIC POLICY

Campaign for Youth Justice (CYJ): $25,000 For its Justice 4 DC Youth project's work to improve the District's juvenile justice system. www.jdcy.org

Capital Area Asset Building Corporation (CAAB): $30,000 For general support of this organization, which works to provide low- to moderate-income individuals in DC with opportunities to improve their financial management skills, increase their savings, and build wealth; and b) www.caab.org

Center on Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP): $100,000 For a) it's D.C. Fiscal Policy Institute (DCFPI), a project that analyzes budget, tax, and programmatic issues affecting low-and moderate-income District families and individuals, for use by policymakers, advocates, and the media ($75,000); and b) its DC Anti-Poverty Campaign, which will work to raise awareness of poverty issues and highlight the need for comprehensive solutions in the District of Columbia ($25,000). www.dcfpi.org

DC Action for Children (DC ACT): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which provides policy analysis, research and community education on issues affecting children, youth, and families in the District of Columbia. www.dckids.org

DC Jobs With Justice: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which works to bring together labor, community, faith-based, and student organizations to build power for working families in Washington, DC. www.jwj.org

DC Appleseed: $35,000 For general support of this organization, which organizes volunteers, including attorneys and other experts, to work in teams to analyze and develop solutions to problems facing the city. www.dcappleseed.org

DC Employment Justice Center (EJC): $35,000 For general support of this organization, which works to secure, protect, and promote workplace justice for low-income workers in the DC metropolitan area. (Second installment of a two-year, $70,000 grant) www.dcejc.org

Environmental Leadership Program (ELP): $20,000 For its project to enable two leaders from the District of Columbia to participate in its Mid-Atlantic Regional Network, which will bring together a diverse cohort of emerging leaders from Maryland, Virginia, and DC in order develop their capacity to have a unique and substantial impact on regional environmental issues. www.elpnet.org

Food Research and Action Center (FRAC): $40,000 For its DC Hunger Solutions project, which focuses on increasing the use of federal nutrition resources in the District. www.dchunger.org

Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless (WLCH): $60,000 For (a) general support of this organization, which seeks to provide legal representation to, and advocacy on behalf of, people struggling with homelessness and poverty in the District of Columbia ($40,000); and (b) its Fair Budget Coalition, which brings together community members, service providers, and faith organizations to collaboratively and strategically advance a public policy agenda that responds compassionately and effectively to the needs of the poor in DC ($20,000). www.legalclinic.org

Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers (WRAG): $10,000 For its Washington AIDS Partnership, which addresses DC's HIV/AIDS epidemic through a variety of strategies that focus on preventing new infections and improving the regional system of HIV/AIDS prevention, testing, and care. www.washingtonaidspartnership.org

Wider Opportunities for Women (WOW): $70,000 For (a) its DC Workforce Development Project, which seeks to improve workforce development and income support infrastructure in the District of Columbia so that it better responds to the needs of unemployed and under-employed job-seekers ($50,000); and (b) its DC Women's Agenda, which works to advance an agenda to promote the health and well-being of the District's women and girls ($20,000). www.wowonline.org

FAMILY INCOME

Academy of Hope (AoH): $35,000 For (a) general support of this organization, which works to break the cycle of poverty and create a community of hope and opportunity by providing high quality education and job skills training to low-income and at-risk adults in the District ($25,000); and (b) to launch a public education campaign linking adult education to K-12 education reform efforts ($10,000). www.aohdc.org

Bread for the City (BFC): $10,000 For a planning grant for its Pre-Employment Program, which seeks to enhance the lives of unemployed and underemployed individuals by providing a continuum of life management and job readiness training services. www.breadforthecity.org

Community Foundation for the National Capital Region (CFNCR): $15,000 For its Greater Washington Workforce Development Collaborative, which invests in strategies to help low-income adults in the Metro DC area gain the skills they need to advance into sustainable employment. www.cfncr.org

Jobs for Homeless People (JHP): $20,000 For its DC program, which works to help homeless individuals in the District of Columbia transform their lives by obtaining meaningful employment and permanent housing. www.jobshavepriority.org

Neighbors' Consejo (NC): $5,000 For emergency financial support to enable this organization to provide food, clothing and medical help to those displaced by the Mt. Pleasant fire. www.neighborsconsejo.org

Southeast Ministry (SEM): $20,000 For general support of this organization, which provides education, job readiness training, and job placement services to residents of Wards 6-8. www.southeastministry.org

STRIVE DC, Inc.: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which trains, places, and provides support to chronically unemployed men and women in the DC area. www.strivedc.org

YWCA National Capital Area (YWCA): $20,000 For its Washington Area Women in the Trades program, which trains low-income women for non-traditional, high wage occupations in construction and other industries. www.ywcanca.org

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

Asian American LEAD (AALEAD): $30,000 For general support of this organization, which offers tutoring, after-school mentoring, and family support programs to more than 250 low-income children and families in the District of Columbia. (Second installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant) www.aalead.org

The Brookings Institution: $5,900 For its Greater Washington's Improving Youth

Employment Services in Washington, DC project, which will craft a report and blueprint for action to expand and improve existing youth employment services in the District of Columbia. www.brookings.edu

DC Children and Youth Investment Trust Corporation: $60,000 For (a) its Communications and Government Relations Plan, which will create sophisticated, strategic avenues for messaging, outreach, and information-sharing for CYITC and Out-of-School Time (OST) stakeholders across the District and the nation ($30,000); and (b) its Carrera Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Program, a year-round, comprehensive academic and pregnancy-prevention program at the Arts and Technology Academy Public Charter School (ATA) in Ward 7 ($30,000).
www.cyitc.org

Heads Up: $35,000 For general support of this organization, which works to provide children from low-income neighborhoods with the academic skills and learning opportunities they need to succeed. (Second installment of a two-year $70,000 grant)
www.headsup-dc.org

Life Pieces to Masterpieces: $40,000 For general support of this organization, which provides academic support, art instruction, leadership development activities, and mentoring to boys and young men living in low-income and public housing east of the Anacostia river. www.lifepieces.org

Martha's Table: $30,000 For its Bridge and Teen Programs, which provide tutorial, recreational, and other learning programming during the school year and summer for at-risk youth in the Shaw and Columbia Heights neighborhoods.
www.marthastable.org

Mary's Center for Maternal and Child Care: $30,000 For its Teen Program, which provides year-round programmatic and case management services to teens (ages 13-21 years), most of whom receive their primary health care at Mary's Center.
www.maryscenter.org

Metro TeenAIDS (MTA): $80,100 a) For general support of this organization, which seeks to prevent the spread of HIV infection among youth in Washington, DC. (First installment of a two-year, $80,000 grant) b) For its DC Alliance of Youth Advocates (DCAYA) project, which works to ensure the availability of policies, programs, and practices within DC that promote and propel youth into productive and healthy adulthood ($40,100). www.metroteenaid.org and www.dc-aya.org

Planned Parenthood Metro Washington (PPMW): $25,000 For general support of this organization, which provides comprehensive, culturally sensitive, affordable, and confidential family planning and reproductive health services to low-income, at-risk teens, women, and men in the metropolitan Washington area. www.ppmw.org

Parents and Friends of Lesbian and Gays of the Metropolitan Washington: $1,000 For its 2008 LGBTQ Youth in Care Conference, a two-day event designed to assist government and non-government agencies with educating staff who provide direct care to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning youth.
www.pflagdc.org

Project Northstar: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which provides tutoring and mentoring for homeless and at-risk-of-being-homeless children in grades 1-12. www.projectnorthstar.org

The Urban Alliance Foundation, Inc. (UA): $40,000 For general support of this organization, whose mission is to train high school students for employment through work skills development, life skills enrichment, and education planning preparation.
www.urbanalliancefoundation.org

Young Women's Project (YWP): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which builds and supports DC teen women and girl leaders so that they can improve their lives and transform their communities. www.youngwomensproject.org

HOUSING AND DEVELOPMENT

Alliance for Global Justice (AGJ): $40,000 For its EMPOWER DC project, which seeks to enhance and improve self-advocacy efforts to improve the quality of life of low- and moderate-income people in the District. www.empowerdc.org

Coalition for Nonprofit Housing and Economic Development: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to preserve affordable housing for low and moderate-income District residents, and to revitalize distressed neighborhoods through its training, capacity-building, public education, and communications components. (Second installment of a two-year $60,000 grant)
www.cnhed.org

Organizing Neighborhood Equity (ONE DC): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which works to create and preserve racial and economic equity in the District of Columbia. www.onedconline.org

FAMILY SUPPORT

Advocates for Justice and Education, Inc. (AJE): $35,000 For general support of this organization, which works to empower parents to address injustices in the delivery of services to meet special education needs. www.aje-dc.org

Foster & Adoptive Parent Advocacy Center: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which works to ensure that every foster and adoptive parent serving DC children is provided the best resources and assistance. www.dcfapac.org

Healthy Babies Project, Inc. (HBP): $35,000 For its Teen Parent Empowerment Program, which provides services and resources to teen parents in Wards 5-8 to enable them to become supportive and responsible parents. www.healthybabiesproject.org

Perry School Community Services Center, Inc.: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to address issues of chronic poverty in the Northwest One area of Washington, DC. www.perryschool.org

Year Up Metro DC: $25,000 For general support of this organization, which provides low-income young adults (ages 18-24) with a combination of hands-on skill development, college credits, and corporate apprenticeships to place them on a viable path to economic self-sufficiency. www.yearup.org

JEWISH ACTIVISM AND PHILANTHROPY

AVODAH: $20,000 For its DC program, which delivers critically-needed services to people in poverty while deepening the commitment of young Jewish adults to social activism as a central expression of their core values. www.avodah.net

Jewish Funds for Justice: $10,000 For a Washington, DC program expansion planning grant. www.jewishjustice.org

Jews United for Justice: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which organizes a visible Jewish presence and takes action for economic and social justice in the Washington, DC area. www.jufj.org

OTHER PROGRAMS

Fair Chance: $15,000 For general support of this organization, which works to strengthen the nonprofit sector by providing community-based nonprofit leaders in DC with technical assistance on organizational development issues. www.fairchancedc.org

B. MARYLAND

Advocates for Children and Youth: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which promotes the interests of Maryland's children and families through the effective use of research, policy development, community outreach, media relations and government relations. www.acy.org

CASA de Maryland: $30,000 For its Community Organizing and Political Action (COPA) Department, which organizes low-income Latino and immigrant workers to effect positive policy changes. www.casademaryland.org

Catholic Charities: $28,000 For its Maryland Alliance for the Poor project to hire a part-time communications outreach consultant who will create and promote a public education campaign to establish a poverty reduction target for the state. www.catholiccharities-md.org

Food Research and Action Center: $35,000 For its Maryland Hunger Solutions project, which will focus on increasing the use of federal nutrition resources in the state. www.mdhungersolutions.org

Job Opportunities Task Force: $35,000 For general support of this organization, which works to promote and develop policies and programs that increase the skills, job opportunities, and incomes of low-skill, low-income workers and job seekers in Maryland. www.jotf.org

Maryland Association of Nonprofit Organizations: $75,000 For (a) its Maryland Budget & Tax Policy Institute, which provides accessible research and analysis of state budget and tax policies ($50,000); and (b) its Advocacy Leaders Program, a year-long program to strengthen the knowledge and policy skills of nonprofit leaders ($25,000). www.marylandnonprofits.org

Progressive Maryland Education Fund: $20,000 For its Progressive Summit, a one-day conference that will bring together organizations and activists to network, strategize, and share best practices for engaging the public on various progressive issues concerning Marylanders. www.pmfef.org

C. VIRGINIA

The Nonprofit Roundtable of Greater Washington, Inc.: $15,000 For its Initiative to Oppose Policies Detrimental to Virginia Nonprofits project, which will work to analyze state and local policies that would be detrimental to nonprofits and the people they serve. www.nonprofitroundtable.org

Tenants and Workers United: $30,000 For its New Virginians Program, which will work to move legal permanent residents on a path to citizenship and full community engagement. www.tenantsworkers.org

Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy: $75,000 For (a) general support for this organization, an interfaith partnership focused on social and economic justice issues ($25,000); and (b) its Commonwealth Institute for Fiscal Policy, which analyzes how policy, budget and tax proposals will affect low-income families and communities ($50,000). www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org

Virginia Organizing Project: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which provides policy analysis, training and technical assistance to low-income individuals and organizations around the state working for economic justice. www.virginia-organizing.org

Virginia Poverty Law Center (VPLC): $25,000 For its project, the Virginia Partnership to Encourage Responsible Lending, which seeks to end predatory lending practices that further impede low-income individuals' and families' ability to achieve economic security. www.vplc.org

Voices for Virginia's Children: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which is a statewide multi-issue organization working to improve policies and practices that affect children, youth, and families. www.vakids.org

III. WOMEN'S RIGHTS AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH $2,048,926.69

UNITED STATES

A. POLICY ANALYSIS AND ADVOCACY TO PROMOTE REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS AND HEALTH

American Social Health Association (ASHA): $30,000 For its HPV project, which seeks to educate women and girls, national organizations, policy makers and the media about the prevention of cervical cancer and sexually transmitted infections. www.ashastd.org

Legal Momentum: $30,000 For its Immigrant Women's Program, which strives to help immigrant women – particularly those who are victims of domestic violence – to live safe and economically secure lives, so they may fulfill their dreams for themselves and their children in the United States. (Second installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant) www.legalmomentum.org

National Economic and Social Rights Initiative (NESRI): $20,000 For its Human Right to Health Program, which promotes the integration of international human rights standards into health policy in the United States. www.nesri.org

National Family Planning & Reproductive Health Association (NFPRHA): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which works to ensure access to voluntary, confidential family planning and other sexual and reproductive health services. www.nfprha.org

National Health Law Program (NHeLP): $30,000 For its Initiative to Promote Reproductive Health for Low-Income Women, which seeks to protect, promote, and expand low-income women's access to quality reproductive health services. (Second installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant) www.healthlaw.org

National Partnership for Women and Families: $220,000 For (a) its Access to Quality Health Care and Reproductive Health and Rights initiatives, which seek to promote access to comprehensive health services, improve the quality of health care, and protect and advance women's reproductive rights ($50,000 per year for five years); (b) its endowment campaign, designed to provide financial stability and flexibility for the organization in the years to come ($150,000 per year for five years); and c) general support ($20,000). www.nationalpartnership.org

National Women's Health Network: $50,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to ensure that women have self-determination in all aspects of their reproductive and sexual health; to establish universal health care that meets the needs of diverse women; and to protect the health of all women by challenging the inappropriate medicalization of women's sexual and reproductive lives. www.nwhn.org

National Women's Law Center (NWLC): $50,000 For (a) its Reproductive Rights and Health Program, which seeks to improve women's access to reproductive health services ($30,000); and (b) the first installment of a $100,000 grant for its endowment, (approved by the Moriah board in November 2007) ($20,000). www.nwlc.org

Reproductive Health Technologies Project (RHTP): $25,000 For its Assisted Reproductive Technologies project, which seeks to prioritize women's health and well-being in a policy agenda for assisted reproductive technologies. www.rhtp.org

B. NEW VOICES AND NEW LEADERS FOR REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE

Abortion Access Project (AAP): $20,000 For general support of this organization, which works to broaden the availability of early abortion care and eliminate disparities in abortion access. (Challenge grant to raise $25,000 from individual donors – $10,000 from new AAP supporters) www.abortionaccess.org

Asian Communities for Reproductive Justice (ACRJ): $25,000 For general support of this organization, which promotes and protects reproductive justice through organizing, leadership development, alliance building, and education to achieve community and systemic change. www.reproductivejustice.org

Choice USA: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which works to address the pressing need for pro-choice messages, programs, and strategies tailored to engage today's young people. (First installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant). www.choiceusa.org

Exhale: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which provides services, training, and education to promote post-abortion health and well-being, and to create a social climate where each person's unique experience with abortion is respected, supported, and free from stigma. www.4exhale.org

Hampshire College: $20,000 For its Civil Liberties and Public Policy (CLPP) Program, which seeks to educate and train a new generation of reproductive rights advocates, policymakers and supporters. www.clpp.hampshire.edu

Law Students for Reproductive Justice (LSRJ): $30,000 For general support of this organization, which works to develop legal expertise and leadership for the future of true reproductive freedom in the US and around the world. (First installment of a two-year, $70,000 grant) www.lsrj.org

Legal Advocates for Women (LAW): $25,000 For a Women's Health and Reproductive Justice Fellow, who will work with the National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum (NAPAWF) on the reproductive rights and health needs of low-income Asian/Pacific Islander-American women. www.wlppfp.org

National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health (NLIRH): $42,926.69 For a) general support of this organization, which seeks to ensure the fundamental human right to reproductive health for Latinas, their families, and their communities through education, public policy, and community mobilization. (Second installment of a two-year, $70,000 grant); and b) an in-kind contribution for rent and operating expenses ($7,926.69). www.latinainstitute.org

National Network of Abortion Funds (NNAF): $35,000 For general support of this organization, which works to increase access to abortion and full reproductive health care for women who face the greatest barriers: low-income women, women of color, immigrant women, and young women. www.nnaf.org

Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice Educational Fund (RCRC): $25,000 For general support of this organization, which works to bring the moral power of religious communities to ensure reproductive choice through education, organizing, and public policy. (Second installment of a two-year, $50,000 grant) www.rcrc.org

Sauti Yetu Center for African Women: $10,000 To launch its FGC Advocacy Network, which will bring together African immigrant and refugee women leaders to eliminate female genital cutting (FGC) in the US and ensure that circumcised women and girls have access to culturally and linguistically appropriate services. www.sautiyetu.org

SisterSong: $25,000 For general support of this organization, which works to amplify and strengthen the collective voices of indigenous women and women of color to ensure reproductive justice by securing human rights. www.sistersong.net

Third Wave Foundation: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which works nationally to leverage funds to support groups led by women and transgender youth under the age of 30 who are working on a variety of gender, racial, reproductive, social, and economic justice issues. www.thirdwavefoundation.org

Tides Center: $95,000 (a) For its Generations Ahead project, which works with social justice leaders and organizations to build their capacity to address emerging reproductive and genetic technologies. (Second installment of a two-year $60,000 grant); b) For its National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum (NAPAWF), which seeks to build a movement of API women and girls in the U.S. to advance social justice and human rights ($35,000); and c) For its Pro-Choice Public Education Project (PEP), which works to raise the voices of young women and elevate their issues so that they can reach full reproductive autonomy. ($30,000) www.generations-ahead.org; www.napawf.org; and www.protectchoice.org

Tides Foundation: $40,000 For its Catalyst Fund, which works to increase resources for US-based women of color-led efforts in the reproductive justice arena in order to build a more inclusive and effective movement for sexual and reproductive health and rights. www.tides.org

C. PROMOTING HEALTHY SEXUALITY AMONG ADOLESCENTS

Advocates for Youth (AFY): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which works to promote effective adolescent reproductive and sexual health programs and policies in the United States and developing countries. www.advocatesforyouth.org

Center for Adolescent Health & the Law (CAHL): $25,000 For its Preserving Adolescents' Access to Confidential Health Care project, which works to maintain consent and confidentiality protections for adolescents, and specifically to ensure that adolescents have access to recommended immunizations, including the new HPV vaccine. www.cahl.org

Christian Community: $25,000 For its Religious Institute on Sexual Morality, Justice, and Healing, which works at the intersection of sexuality and religion to advance sexual health, sexuality education, and sexual and reproductive justice in America's faith communities and society at large. (Second installment of a two-year, $50,000 grant). www.religioustinstitute.org

Rutgers University Foundation: $33,000 For its Teen-to-Teen Sexuality Education Project, a national teen media project and forum for young people to learn about, and add their voices to, the ongoing national debate on comprehensive sexuality education. www.answer.rutgers.edu

Scenarios USA: $20,000 For its advocacy project, which will launch a new wave of dialogue around sexual education programs and policy and promote a social studies approach to sex education. www.scenariosusa.org

Sexuality Information & Education Council of the US (SIECUS): $45,000 For general support of this organization, which works to ensure the right of all people to accurate information, comprehensive education about sexuality, and sexual health services. (Second installment of a two-year, $90,000 grant) www.siecus.org

INTERNATIONAL

D. POPULATION, HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT POLICIES AND PRACTICE

Catholics for Choice: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which shapes and advances sexual and reproductive ethics that are based on justice, reflect a commitment to women's well being, and respect and affirm the moral capacity of women and men to make sound decisions about their lives. (First installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant). www.catholicsforchoice.org

Center for Health and Gender Equity (CHANGE): $65,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to ensure that U.S. policy and funding levels promote and advance women's sexual and reproductive health and rights. www.genderhealth.org

The Funders Network on Population, Reproductive Health and Rights: $7,000 For its efforts to improve communication, foster collaboration, increase resources and enhance the overall effectiveness of grantmakers in this field. www.fundersnet.org

Gender Action: $25,000 For general support of this organization, which promotes gender equality and women's rights in international financial institution (IFI) investments through research, advocacy and training. www.genderaction.org

Global AIDS Alliance (GAA): $25,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to galvanize the political will and financial resources needed to slow, and ultimately stop, the global AIDS crisis, and to reduce its impact on poor countries that have been hardest hit by the pandemic. www.globalaidsalliance.org

Health Global Access Project, Inc. (HGAP): $40,000 For general support of this organization, which works to achieve equitable access to treatment and care for people living with HIV/AIDS in developing countries. www.healthgap.org

International Center for Research on Women (ICRW): $51,000 For general support of this organization, which works to improve the lives of women in poverty, advance women's equality and human rights, and contribute to broader economic and social well-being, through research, technical assistance, capacity building, and policy communications. (first installment of a two-year, $80,000 grant) www.icrw.org

Island Press: $20,000 For its Population, Justice and the Environmental Challenge project, which seeks to develop and articulate a justice-based approach to population and environment issues. www.islandpress.org

Program for Appropriate Technology in Health (PATH): $65,000 For PATH's Global Campaign for Microbicides (GCM), a broad-based, international effort to build support among policymakers, opinion leaders and the general public for increased investment in microbicides and other prevention technologies that meet women's needs. (Second installment of a two-year $100,000 grant, plus $15,000 for its leadership transition) www.global-campaign.org

Universities Allied for Essential Medicines: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to make medicines accessible in developing countries by taking advantage of the important role of universities in medical research and the unique position of students to advocate for change. www.essentialmedicine.org

E. WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS

Center for Justice and International Law (CEJIL): $25,000 For its Advancing Women's Rights under the OAS and the Inter-American System project, which defends the rights of women in Latin America through legal work before the Inter-American System for the promotion and protection of human rights. www.cejil.org

Global Justice Center: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which promotes strategic and timely legal enforcement of international gender equality guarantees during conflict, post-conflict and transitional justice situations. www.globaljusticecenter.net

Human Rights Watch (HRW): $45,000 For its Women's Rights Division, which works to monitor and combat violence and sex discrimination against women committed or tolerated by governments worldwide. (Second installment of a two-year, $90,000 grant) www.hrw.org/women

International Rescue Committee (IRC): $30,000 For the IRC's Women's Commission for Refugee Women and Children, and specifically, for its Detention and Asylum Program, which promotes reforms in US law, policy, and practice to ensure meaningful human rights protections for women, children, and families who are fleeing persecution and seeking asylum in the US. (Second installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant) www.womenscommission.org

Tahirih Justice Center: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which enables immigrant women and girls fleeing gender-based violence to access justice under US law. (Second installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant) www.tahirih.org

University of California Hastings College of Law: $20,000 For its Center for Gender and Refugee Studies, which works to advance women's human rights by challenging an unaccountable asylum system and by advocating for gender equity in asylum processes. www.cgrs.uchastings.edu

Urgent Action Fund (UAF): $25,000 For general support of this organization, which promotes the human rights of women and girls through rapid response grantmaking; research and publications about women in conflict areas; and collaborative programs to promote women's participation in conflict prevention and resolution, peace building, and post-conflict reconstruction. www.urgentactionfund.org

Women's Link Worldwide: $25,000 For general support of this organization, which uses strategic litigation and international human rights law to further women's rights and reproductive rights around the world. www.womenslinkworldwide.org

World Organization for Human Rights USA: $40,000 For its Gender-Based Asylum and Refugee Assistance Project, which uses high-impact litigation and training to protect refugee women fleeing human rights abuses and to reinforce their right to due process and judicial review. (First installment of a two-year, $80,000 grant) www.humanrightsusa.org

F. WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH AT THE COUNTRY AND COMMUNITY LEVEL

Catholics for Choice: $25,000 Recommended for the Instancia por la Salud y el Desarrollo de las Mujeres (Coalition for the Health and Development of Women), which educates policymakers, health officials and the public about progressive policies related to women's health in Guatemala. www.catholicsforchoice.org

Central American Women’s Fund (CAWF): $70,000 For (a) general support of this organization, which mobilizes funding to support grassroots women’s groups and human rights initiatives—especially those led by young women—in Central America ($40,000); and (b) recommended for support of Puntos de Encuentro, a Nicaraguan feminist NGO that combines cutting edge television, radio, web and print media, leadership training, community education, and alliance building as tools for strengthening the social movements of women and young people ($30,000). www.fcmujeres.org and www.puntos.org.ni

Fund for Global Human Rights: $80,000 Recommended for a) Minga Perú, which produces educational radio programs and trains a network of community promoters to provide culturally appropriate health and income generation education in indigenous communities in the Peruvian Amazon ($30,000); and b) Centro Mujeres (CM), a community health and rights organization dedicated to fostering the empowerment and well-being of women, adolescents, and migrant workers; providing community health education and leadership training; and advocating for changes in policies and programs that promote respect for reproductive and sexual rights in Baja California Sur, Mexico; ($50,000). www.mingaperu.org and www.centromujeres.org

Rights Action: $20,000 Recommended for the Asociación de Servicios Comunitarios de Salud’s (ASECSA) youth sexual and reproductive health advocacy project, which seeks to provide culturally-sensitive sexual and reproductive health education and to advocate for respect for sexual and reproductive rights in Guatemala. www.rightsaction.org and www.asecsaguatemala.org

San Miguel – CASA, Inc.: $50,000 For general support of this organization, which raises funds for the Centro para los Adolescentes de San Miguel de Allende (CASA); CASA trains peer promoters and develops young leaders, operates Mexico’s first nationally accredited midwifery college, and provides reproductive health services and education in the state of Guanajuato, Mexico. www.casa.org.mx

STITCH: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which builds leadership through training in labor organizing for Central American women working in export-oriented industries and strengthens labor solidarity between female workers in Central America and in the U.S. www.stitchonline.org

IV. GUATEMALA $940,000

A. STRENGTHENING GUATEMALA'S NATIONAL-LEVEL CIVIL SOCIETY INSTITUTIONS AND POLICIES

ActionAid International USA (AAI USA): $55,000 For (a) Action Aid Guatemala's project to strengthen the campesino movement ($35,000); and (b) recommended for support of the Sector de Mujeres (Women's Sector), a national advocacy network whose member organizations monitor the implementation of policies intended to benefit women, promote gender equality, and build greater economic, political, cultural and social agency among Guatemalan women ($20,000). www.actionaidusa.org

Asociación para la Promoción y el Desarrollo de la Comunidad—"Ceiba": $20,000 For its Trade Agreement Monitoring and Advocacy Project, which monitors CAFTA's implementation and its impact on everyday Guatemalans, strengthens the engagement of Guatemalan civil society in trade issues, and promotes food sovereignty in rural Guatemala. www.ceibaquate.org

Center for Human Rights Legal Action (CALDH): $40,000 For its Justice and Reconciliation project (DEJURE), which works with indigenous communities to prosecute former government and military officials for genocide and other crimes. www.caldh.org

International Commission of Jurists (ICJ): $35,000 For its Guatemala Country Office, which promotes the implementation of international human rights principles and improvements in the Guatemalan justice system. www.icj.org

Fundación Myrna Mack: $40,000 For its Justice and Democratic Security project, which seeks to strengthen the rule of law in Guatemala and promote military reform through research and advocacy. www.myrnamack.org.gt

Network in Solidarity with the People of Guatemala (NISGUA): $100,000 Recommended for the Pop No'j Educational Program, which provides leadership training and policy support to indigenous organizations, promotes citizen participation, and seeks to generate dialogue and coordination between indigenous and non-indigenous groups ($30,000) and b) for Trópico Verde, an environmental organization that mobilizes popular participation in environmental protection efforts; promotes the conservation of forests, wetlands and biodiversity; and educates Guatemalan and U.S. policymakers on environmental concerns. ($30,000); and (c) for the Association for the Development and Promotion of Communities-Ceiba to organize an international conference in Guatemala to develop strategies and a campaign to address the Goldcorp Marlin Mine ($20,000); and (d) recommended for the Coordinación del Acompañamiento Internacional de Guatemala (CAIG/ACOGUATE), which coordinates the work of human rights observers and companions for civil society organizations and in communities whose members have filed charges of genocide against past government officials ($20,000). www.nisgua.org

Rights Action: $105,000 For its Community Defenders: Challenging Impunity and Protecting Natural Resources project in Guatemala, which provides training, financial and international advocacy support to community-based human rights defenders working to break the impunity of past repression, and seeks to protect the natural resources of indigenous communities from threats such as mines and dams ($35,000, second installment of a two-year, $70,000 grant). Also recommended for support of: (a) the Asociación de Servicios Comunitarios de Salud (ASECSA) in its project to promote sustainable agricultural practices and food sovereignty and security in central-western Guatemala. ($30,000) and (b) the National Coordination of Indigenous and Campesino Organizations (CONIC), an indigenous organization working with indigenous and campesino communities for economic justice and legal rights to their lands ($25,000) and (c) the CONIC Women's Commission, to promote the greater involvement and leadership of indigenous women within the greater indigenous campesino movement ($10,000); and d) for CONIC's 7th National Women's Conference, which strengthens indigenous women's activism by convening indigenous and campesina women from across Guatemala for educational, movement building and advocacy activities ($5,000). www.rightsaction.org

Rights Action: $40,000 (a) For Rights Action's support of the 2008 Social Forum of the Americas (FSA), a hemispheric meeting of civil society organizations engaged in promoting alternative models of globalization that prioritize economic justice over corporate profits ($30,000); and recommended for the Association for Community Promotion and Development 'Ceiba', for its organizing for the FSA ($10,000). www.rightsaction.org

Sinergia No'j: $30,000 For its Indigenous Women's Leadership School, which provides leadership training to indigenous women and instruction in advocating for women's rights at the community level as well as within broader civil society. www.sinergianoj.org

B. STRENGTHENING CAPACITY AND CIVIL SOCIETY AT THE LOCAL LEVEL

Asociación para la Promoción y el Desarrollo de la Comunidad—"Ceiba": $80,000 For its Supporting Local Development Alternatives to Mining project, which works with municipal and indigenous communities and organizations to articulate community opposition to mining and to formulate development alternatives. www.ceibaquate.org

Rights Action: $80,000 Recommended for (a) the Asociación Comunitaria de Desarrollo Integral Mam (ACODIMAM), a grassroots, community development organization promoting community action, sustainable development and improved reproductive health in Mam communities in Quetzaltenango and San Marcos.

($20,000); b) the Asociación Nacional de Mujeres Guatemaltecas “Ixmucané”, a grassroots organization of indigenous and campesina women in the department of the Petén that promotes rural women’s leadership and land rights. ($20,000); c) the Asociación para el Desarrollo Integral de las Víctimas de la Violencia en las Verapaces Maya Achí (ADIVIMA), a grassroots organization founded by survivors of Guatemala’s civil war that provides legal support to communities and individuals who seek justice for human rights violations. ($20,000); and d) the Asociación de Desarrollo Integral San Miguelense—ADISMI, a community-based organization in San Miguel Ixtahuacán, Guatemala that works with local residents to assert their rights and their own vision of economic development ($20,000).

www.rightsaction.org

Strategies for International Development (SID): $25,000 For its Guatemala Project, which helps small-scale farmers in Chimaltenango, Guatemala to maximize their income from sustainable coffee production. www.sidworld.org

World Neighbors: $35,000 For its Guatemala Project, which is building agricultural and organizing capacity among marginalized communities, thereby enabling them to satisfy their own basic needs. www.vmgua.org

C. PROMOTING A JUST U.S. AND MULTILATERAL POLICY TOWARD GUATEMALA THAT FOSTERS HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIOECONOMIC JUSTICE

Latin America Working Group Education Fund (LAWGEF): $45,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to promote human rights in U.S. foreign policy towards Latin America. (First installment of a two-year, $90,000 grant)

www.lawg.org

Network in Solidarity with the People of Guatemala (NISGUA): $75,000 For general support of this organization, whose activities include promoting human rights and social and economic justice in Guatemala – including implementation of the 1996 Peace Accords – and promoting a U.S. policy that supports these goals.

www.nisgua.org

University of Notre Dame du Lac: $25,000 For its Center for Civil and Human Rights' Human Rights Impact Assessment of the Marlin Mine in Guatemala project.

www.nd.edu

Washington Office on Latin America (WOLA): $40,000 For its Addressing Security and Human Rights in Guatemala project, which supports human rights, democratic consolidation and police reform in Guatemala through analysis, policy advocacy and media outreach in the United States and Guatemala. www.wola.org

V. INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRADE $490,000

A. PROMOTING POLICY AND PROGRAM CHANGE IN U.S. AND MULTILATERAL INSTITUTIONS THAT GOVERN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRADE

Center for Economic and Policy Research (CEPR): $30,000 For its Global Economic Policy Project, which seeks to foster a more accurate and balanced debate on key international economic issues, promote accountability, and improve governance at multilateral economic institutions. www.cepr.net

Center for International Environmental Law (CIEL): $30,000 For its Reforming International Financial Institutions (IFIs) project, which aims to improve the social and environmental effects of IFIs and Export Credit Agencies (ECAs) by promoting transparency, public participation and accountability in these institutions and lessening their negative impact on the environment, health and human rights. www.ciel.org

Center of Concern: $30,000 For its Global Women's Project, which uses research, advocacy and education to promote economic and social justice for women, their families and their communities. www.coc.org

Community Partners: $20,000 Recommended for the Funders Network on Trade and Globalization (FNTG) in its efforts to raise awareness in the funding community of the relevance of trade, globalization and global justice issues on many domestic and international funding issues, and to help diverse groups of funders to see the impact of the global economy and its framework on their issues. www.communitypartners.org

Institute for Policy Studies (IPS): $40,000 For its Strategies to Promote Sustainable Trade and Development project, which seeks to promote alternative approaches to development in Latin America. www.ips-dc.org

Public Citizen Foundation: $30,000 For the Western Hemisphere Project of Global Trade Watch, which utilizes public education and organizing, research, analysis, monitoring, and international networking and media work to address trade and globalization issues in the Western hemisphere. www.citizen.org/trade

Tufts University: $15,000 For its Global Development and Environment Institute's Working Groups project, which educates Latin American government officials about alternatives to the neoliberal economic model, particularly policies relating to foreign direct investment and agriculture and rural development. www.gdae.org

B. SUPPORTING COMMUNITIES AND POPULATIONS DIRECTLY AFFECTED BY INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRADE

Amazon Watch: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which works in partnership with indigenous peoples in the Amazon Basin to defend environmentally pristine areas from industrial mega-projects and informs investors and financial institutions about the financial risks of investing in such projects (First installment of a two-year, $60,000 grant). www.amazonwatch.org

Bank Information Center (BIC): $30,000 For its project to build synergies and capacity among indigenous and extractive industries (EI) resistance movements in Central America and the Andean Region, which will promote indigenous peoples' direct engagement with international financial institutions (IFIs) and their greater influence over IFI projects and policies in the region. www.bicusa.org

Center for International Environmental Law: $50,000 For its Empowering Indigenous Communities Concerned About Mining in Guatemala project, which provides legal counsel and services and international campaign support to indigenous communities in Guatemala affected by the Marlin goldmine. www.ciel.org

Forest Peoples Programme (FPP): $30,000 For its International Financial Flows and the Rights of Forest Peoples project, which promotes respect for the rights of forest peoples and environmental sustainability by international financial institutions as well as by international development and conservation agencies. www.forestpeoples.org

International Rivers (IR): $30,000 For its Mesoamerica Program, which works with communities that have been or will be affected by dams funded by International Financial Institutions (IFIs), helping communities to oppose socially and environmentally destructive mega-projects and to propose alternative development plans. www.internationalrivers.org

Oregon Fair Trade Campaign (OFTC): $10,000 For its Trade Stories Project, which aims to increase public participation and accountability in trade policymaking. www.citizenstrade.org/orftc.php

Polaris Institute USA: $10,000 Recommended for Our World Is Not For Sale (OWINFS), a global network of organizations, activists and social movements committed to challenging current trade and investment agreements that advance the interests of the world's most powerful corporations and promoting alternative proposals that will instead benefit the world's peoples and the environment. www.ourworldisnotforsale.org

Quixote Center: $30,000 Recommended for the Alliance for Responsible Trade (ART), a national network of labor, family farm, religious, women's, environmental, development and research organizations that promotes equitable and sustainable trade and development, particularly in the Americas. www.art-us.org

Sierra Club Foundation: $25,000 For its Responsible Trade Program, which seeks to create U.S. public support for trade policies that protect people and the environment. www.sierraclub.org/trade

VI. HUMAN RIGHTS $477,113.45

A. PROMOTING INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS

As You Sow: $20,000 For its Shareholder Action against Slave Labor project, which targets widespread forced labor and child labor in Uzbekistan's cotton production. www.asyousow.org

Center for Victims of Torture: $25,000 For its New Tactics in Human Rights project, which seeks to encourage innovation and collaboration among a broad range of human rights advocates. www.newtactics.org

Freedom Now: $25,000 For general support of this organization, which promotes respect for human rights worldwide by working to free prisoners of conscience through focused legal, political and public relations advocacy efforts. www.cpj.org

Fund for Global Human Rights: $182,113.45 For a) general support of this organization, which provides funding to local human rights organizations around the world. (Third installment of a three-year $300,000 grant, plus second installment of a two-year $75,000 grant); and b) an in-kind contribution for rent and operating expenses ($27,613.45). www.globalhumanrights.org

International Labor Rights Forum: $25,000 For general support of this organization, which organizes labor groups internationally, protects labor rights, and advocates for increased corporate accountability for labor rights violations. www.laborrights.org

Refugees International: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which generates life saving humanitarian assistance and protection for displaced people around the world, and works to end the conditions that create displacement. www.refugeesinternational.org

Shomrey Mishpat Rabbis for Human Rights: $25,000 For general support of this organization, which is dedicated to education, advocacy, prayer, and action in support of human rights. (Second installment of a two-year $50,000 grant). www.rhr-na.org

B. ENSURING A FAIR AND IMPARTIAL JUDICIARY IN THE UNITED STATES

Alliance for Justice: $45,000 For general support of this organization, which seeks to ensure a fair and independent judiciary and equal access to the courts, and to protect and promote the rights of nonprofits to advocate for public policy. (Second installment of two-year $90,000 grant) www.allianceforjustice.org

American Constitution Society: $30,000 For general support of this organization, which works to ensure that our nation's founding values of human dignity, individual rights and liberties, genuine equality and access to justice enjoy their rightful, central place in American law. www.acslaw.org

Justice At Stake: $20,000 For general support of this organization, which works to keep courts fair and impartial through citizen education, civic engagement, and reform. www.justiceatstake.org

Leadership Conference on Civil Rights Education Fund: $60,000 For general support of this organization, which educates the public about the need for national policies that support civil rights and social and economic justice. (Second installment of two-year $120,000, grant) www.civilrights.org

VII. RELIEF $95,000

Doctors Without Borders USA/ Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF): $35,000 For its Emergency Relief Fund, which allows MSF to respond to critical humanitarian needs, including those that may not be receiving public or media attention. (Second installment of a two-year $70,000 grant) www.doctorswithoutborders.org

ActionAid USA (AAUSA): $50,000 a) For its Global Food Crisis project, to carry out research and advocacy to address the structural roots of the current food crisis, in an effort to create systemic change, and to promote effective strategies for shorter-term relief ($30,000); and b) emergency relief for Haiti in the aftermath of that country being hit with three consecutive hurricanes in as many weeks, causing extensive damage to a country that already suffers extreme poverty ($20,000). www.actionaidusa.org

Rights Action: $10,000 Recommended for relief and recovery efforts by the Asociación Comunitaria de Desarrollo Integral Mam (ACODIMAM) in response to the devastating effects of recent tropical storms in the highlands of Guatemala. www.rightsaction.org

VII. OTHER $127,500

Alliance for Justice: $2,500 For general support of this organization, which works to advance the cause of justice for all Americans, strengthen the public interest community's ability to influence public policy, and foster the next generation of advocates. www.afj.org

American Constitution Society of Law and Policy: $2,500 For general support of this organization, which works to ensure that the fundamental principles of human dignity, individual rights and liberties, genuine equality, and access to justice are in their rightful, central place in American law. www.acslaw.org

C & O Canal Trust, Inc.: $2,000 For general support of this organization, which works to protect, restore and promote the C&O Canal National Historical Park. www.canaltrust.org

Center for Educational Innovation (CEI) – Public Education Association: $3,000 For technical assistance support to the Israeli and District of Columbia Public School Systems. www.ceipea.org

The Community Foundation of the National Capital Region: $3,000 For the Black Philanthropic Alliance. www.cfncr.org

Dade Community Foundation: $5,000 For general support of this organization. www.dadecommunityfoundation.org

DC Abortion Fund: $7,000 For general support of this organization, which works to cover the gap between what women can afford and the cost of an abortion and to make the freedom of choice a reality for all women. www.dcaf.nnaf.org

Drum Major Institute, Inc.: $2,500 For general support of this organization, which seeks to change policy by offering platforms to amplify the ideas of those who are working for social and economic fairness. www.drummajorinstitute.org

Foundation for Dance Promotion, Inc.: $3,000 For general support of this organization.

Gillen Brewer School, Inc.: $12,000 For general support of this organization, which is dedicated to transforming the lives of young children with a wide variety of language, emotional, developmental, learning and health-related disabilities. www.gillenbrewer.com

Global Greengrants Fund: $5,000 For general support of this organization, which provides small grants to grassroots groups worldwide working for environmental justice and sustainability. www.greengrants.org

Global Heritage Fund: $5,000 For general support of this organization, which work to ensure the long-term preservation of humankind's most important and imperiled sites in the world. www.globalheritagefund.org

Management Assistance Group: $38,000 For general support of the Management Assistance Group ($20,000) and for technical assistance for the Global Campaign for Microbicides ($10,000). www.managementassistance.org

MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger: $10,000 For its Chanukah-themed, hunger-and poverty-focused educational piece that helps disseminates a social justice message. www.mazon.org

Mississippi Center for Justice: $2,500 For general support of this organization, which works to advance racial and economic justice. www.mscenterforjustice.org

National Religious Campaign Against Torture: $3,000 For its Banners Across America! Poster Project to produce a full color poster showing the growing moral consensus against torture among people of all faiths, all across the country. www.nrcat.org

Pacific Environment and Resource Center: $5,000 For general support of this organization, which works to protects the living environment of the Pacific Rim. www.pacificenvironment.org

The Posse Foundation: $10,000 For general support of this organization, which identifies, recruits and trains student leaders from public high schools to form multicultural teams called 'Posses' in order to improve access to higher education. www.possefoundation.org

Public Interest Projects, Inc.: $1,500 For the International Human Rights Funders Group, which works to address the growing needs of the human rights community, both grantseekers and grantmakers, at home and abroad. www.PublicInterestProjects.org

Second Presbyterian Church: $5,500 For the Alexander Robertson School, which provides a small, safe, nurturing setting in which children learns to be thoughtful independent learners. www.alexanderrobertson.org

St. Margarets Episcopal Church: $5,000 For Charlie's Place in memory of Mrs. Betsy Mathiason; Charlie's Place is a homeless drop-in center that provides breakfast, case management, health services, and referrals to homeless men and woman in DC.

Tides Center: $5,000 Recommended for support of Grantmakers Without Borders, a philanthropic network dedicated to increasing funding for international social justice and environmental sustainability. www.tidescenter.org

Washington National Opera: $5,000 For its Arts Education Program with the DC Public Library System, which presents free opera programs to children and their families. www.dc-opera.org